

Sidna L. Leavenworth Scholarship in Counseling Psychology

Requirements:

1. Successful and timely completion of the expected PhD program requirements for the student's year (as documented by the program's annual progress reviews).
2. Maintain full-time enrollment in the Counseling Psychology PhD program.
3. Have a minimum of a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.
4. Evidence of research activity, service, or community engagement in the field of Counseling Psychology beyond degree program requirements.
5. Not currently completing the internship requirement.
6. Not having completed the program's internship requirement.

Additional Application Requirements:

- A letter to the Scholarship committee outlining evidence of research activity, service, or community engagement in the field of Counseling Psychology.
- A timetable for completion of all degree requirements for graduation.
- A copy of unofficial transcript.
- A curriculum vitae (CV).
- An application cover page per instructions.

This scholarship award is subject to availability of funding. May not be awarded every year.