

BONNEY LECTURE 2017

DOES WHO YOU ARE MATTER? GENDER, RACE, ETHNICITY, AND YOUTH ALCOHOL INTERVENTION OUTCOMES.

Dr. Anderson's area of expertise is the developmental psychopathology of addictive behaviors in children and adolescents. Her Adolescent Health Research Program collaborates with researchers, school personnel, and treatment centers to better understand the processes whereby youth make decisions to use alcohol and drugs as well as make purposeful efforts to cut down, stop or quit these behaviors.
